

Biking and Walking in the Eastern Shore

June 23, 2017

10-11:30AM: Dorchester Center for the Arts (DCA) (321 High Street, Cambridge, MD 21613)

Panel discussion on various topics including bicycle and pedestrian tourism in the Eastern Shore, community engagement efforts, Ironman races, Blackwater Refuge highlights and attractions, and much more.

Panelists:

- Eric Brenner, Chair, Maryland Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee
- Gerry Boyle, Race Director, Ironman Races
- Amanda Fenstermaker, Director, Dorchester County Tourism
- Brian Roche, President & Founder, Choptank Heritage Trail
- Ray Paterra, Visitor Services Manager, National Wildlife Refuge Complex

11:30AM: Break for Lunch (lunch venues within walking distance of DCA)

1:15PM: Harriet Tubman Visitor Center (4068 Golden Hill Road, Church Creek, MD 21622)

Ranger led tour and discussion of the Harriet Tubman Visitor Center

- Dana Paterra, Park Manager, Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad State Park
- Angela Crenshaw, Assistant Manager, Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad State Park

2:15PM: Bike Ride led by Amanda Fenstermaker, Director of Dorchester County Tourism

Biking to begin and end at the Harriet Tubman Visitor Center.

Options will be made available for longer bike rides and one-night/weekend hotel stay at the Hyatt

FAQs

What are my parking options throughout the day of the event?

- Parking (including street parking) is available behind the Dorchester Center of the Arts
- During the bike ride, all cars can be left at the Harriet Tubman State Park

How can I contact the organizer for questions or interest in the longer bike ride and one-night/weekend hotel stay? Please contact Ms. Oluseyi Olugbenle, staff to the Maryland Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee, at oolugbenle@mdot.state.md.us.